Reviews:

“Critics say Thomas may be the best vocalist to interpret Holiday”, Her vocal styling and portrayal of “Lady Day” have mesmerized audiences across the country.” -St. Louis Jazz Notes

“...Mardra, a vocalist and actress whose experience in theater brings an extra dimension to her interpretations of song lyrics.” -The Riverfront Times

"Mardra Thomas brings the character of Mama to full-blooded, fully rounded life. Especially fine are Thomas' scenes with Bonnie Harmon..." -The Riverfront Times

"Mardra Thomas is gripping as Mildred, Her scenes with her good-hearted sister-in-law (Bonnie Harmon) snap with the authenticity of overheard conversation."- St. Louis Post Dispatch

"Mardra Thomas has the impeccable phrasing of Nancy Wilson, and also the sharp tang reminiscent of Eartha Kitt.” -Mike Stratton WLNZ LCC Radio
